Review Highlights - "Stunning" "art deco" decor, complete with "the most gorgeous chandeliers ever to light your dinner", wows Downtown crowds even more than the "wonderful" Cal-Italian fare at this "theatrical" destination for "special occasions" and other rendezvous. . . . Most agree that the "opulent" surroundings and "relaxed, professional" staff set the stage when you're playing "princess" for a day; N.B. closed weekends for private parties.
